All such persons are charged with upholding the policies and procedures of NCCCO.

As a consequence of NCCCO's due regard for the sensitive confidentiality and the personal privacy of each test participant and examiner; the restricted business secrets and substantial investments of NCCCO; the prevention of test compromise, loss, or unauthorized exposure of questions, processes, and procedures; and, the validation, integrity, and certification of the testing and credentialing systems; NCCCO requires that certain rules of conduct be agreed to by the persons and entities listed above, and, for good and valuable consideration, that they be made mandatory to preserve and protect the personal, privacy, confidentiality, business, property, and other implicated rights, as well as the public trust.

As a condition, and in consideration of being provided the opportunity to serve or work with NCCCO, and in recognition of the importance of the integrity of NCCCO's certification program, your signature(s) below certify that you have carefully reviewed the following statements and hereby agree to be bound by them. Thank you for your cooperation and your continuing work for and support of NCCCO.
